Our visitors can listen to folk music from different parts of the country – 4 musicians play all the evening. At the beginning of the evening the guests listen to traditional music. Then the „show“ starts- it means the program of Bohemian, Moravian, Slovak folk songs and folk dances, gipsy songs and gipsy dance, too. This part of the evening takes about 1 hour. The visitors have an opportunity to see typical folk-instruments, such as hammer-dulcimer, fujara (shepherds-whistle) and bag-pipe. Then after a break international music comes according to the wish of the guests, their nationality and their spirit (they can dance or sing etc.). At the very end, around 10.15 p.m. the visitors can listen to famous compositions of classical music, which were inspired by folk music (Smetana, Dvořák, Brahms, Sarasate, Mozart, Monti etc.), if they are interested. Every evening is different according to the mood of the guests.
